

Augrabies Falls National park fall is so MARVELOUS!

Location

- Northern-Cape, South-

Africa

- I will see the Cape clawless, Verreaux's (Black) Eagles, and the rock hyrax

Location

- How to go there?
- Northern-Cape, South-Africa
- Means of transports

-Boat

-Plane

-Car

discover

- What to see there?
- you will see the Cape clawless, Verreaux's (Black) Eagles, and the rock hyrax
- You will see a massive exfoliation dome or "whaleback" Walking to the summit will give one of the best views of the park and its surroundings.

Activities

You can watch waterfall viewpoints within easy reach Arrow point and Moon rock specifically set-up mountain bike trails within the park.

Rules and Warning

You are not allowed to wear sandals in summer in order to avoid scorpion stings.

Malaria has been historically recorded in the area but is not very prevalent. Still, Malaria medication and prophylactics are recommended in order to safeguard against possible infection. Guests should consult their doctor.

